Mint Sheet Brokerage Changes Hands

Philatelic Pickpockets And Stamp Thieves Clean Dealers At Alex Annual

The recent Atlantic City Stamp Show, known as ATEX, will long remain in the minds of some of the dealers attending as the show where the post-war crime wave made its appearance. On one day of the show, Sunday April 6, six of the dealers with tables were robbed; a Philadelphia dealer had his pocket picked and was relieved of his wallet; another Pennsylvania dealer had his car stolen from the hotel garage, and a New York dealer had his luggage taken from the hotel door while waiting transportation to the depot.

To one dealer, George McCabe, of Troy, Pa. it was old stuff. He has attended the last three Atlantic City stamp shows. He has also had stamps stolen from his table at the last three Atlantic City shows!

Cachet Offered For First Airmail Flight

Northeast Airlines has designed a cachet marking the first flight by Northeast between Portland, Lawrence, Worcester, and Newark and first flight mail for collectors will be serviced by Northeast Airlines Public Relations Department, subject to all postal regulations, according to Robert F. Webb, Director of Public Relations.

First flight covers will be stamped with a simple, suitable cachet containing the details required by collectors. Date of the first flight will be during the second week of May and all collectors are asked to send stamped, addressed covers to Northeast Airlines Public Relations Department, One State Street, Boston, Mass., as soon as possible.

Inauguration of the new route by Northeast Airlines provides a direct route from New York-Newark terminal to the vacation centers of Maine and the Maritimes for the first time.

A Penny For Your Thoughts

Yep, that is Penny Singleton, noted screen and radio star and collector of Air Mail Stamps. She is displaying the special Presidential silk scarf which she donated for the Stamp Exhibition of Southern California, held April 5, 6, 7 at the Elks Club Ball Room in Los Angeles. It is estimated that more than 10,000 people viewed this show which has become the big annual show in California.

The scarf displayed by Penny was for the outstanding entry by a lady, and won by Mrs. P. C. Mason for her Pitcairn Islands. Penny also gave a Gold trophy which was won by Dr. H. M. Barnhart for his Number One's. Other awards of interest are the Barry Fitzgerald Gold Trophy to Roy Mitchell for his 19th Century U. S.; the Betty Grable Gold Trophy to Colonel Hans Lagerloef for his Orange River Colony; the Red Skelton Gold Trophy to Sergeant R. S. Honeyman for Air Mails; the Philatelic Club Gold Trophy to Leslie W. Brewster for 19th Century Canada; Walt Disney Original Drawings were awarded the three following exhibitors, Stamp Club of Figueroa Street School, Henry Chaloner for Western Franks and Lee H. Cornell for Kicking Mule Cancellations.

Numerous steel engraved certificates of award were given a long list of other exhibitors.

Judges for the show were Professor Bennett M. Allen, Lauder W. Jones and John H. Stone.

Warren W Scholl Buys Mint Sheet Brokerage; LeGanke To Retain The Hi-Hat Auctions And Will Expand Same

The Mint Sheet Brokerage Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, was sold yesterday to Warren W. Scholl of New York City. Nelson P. LaGanke, founder of the original "Bid" and "Ask" Mint sheet service in 1936, in disclosing the sale said that negotiations had been under way for some time. He added that both parties had preferred to wait until Mr. Scholl had had sufficient time to acquire thorough first hand working knowledge of the business and that is why the transfer date was fixed upon as May 1. Mr. Scholl, who has been assisting in the operation of the firm for several weeks, has been active in New York philatelic circles for several years. His collecting interests date back to the late 1920's and for the past several years he has been engaged in amassing a sizeable amount of U. S. material in addition to his collection with the thought of a business venture. He is well known to a number of those actively engaged in the New York trade. He has not been overly active in philately's social circles, however, and it is believed that recent mention of him in LINN'S WEEKLY is one of the first, if not the first, in the trade press.

The Mint Sheet Brokerage Co., for those not familiar with the firm, offers to buy or sell mint U. S. sheets on a 3% commission basis and also publishes a Weekly Quotation Bulletin listing the various "Bid" and "Ask" prices as well as certain offers at the same commission rate. It is not engaged in the practice of selling sheets on margin. In the announcement of the transfer of the firm, it was stated that there is to be no change of policy nor in operating methods. Since its inception ten years ago the activities of the Mint Sheet Brokerage Company have constantly expanded. Each activity, namely Auction, Brokerage and Discount Postage is a full time job, with the result that to give better service, the division in operations has been made. Mr. LaGanke, while no longer actively associated with Mint Sheet Brokerage, has retained the Hi-Hat Auctions and will continue to carry them on, sharing his old offices with Mr. Scholl for the time being at least.

Mr. Scholl states that probably the only change to be noted in his end of the business will be the gradual expansion which additional time, attention and staff will allow. He also states that he will place much of his U. S. sheet material at the disposal of the firm for items on which stock is low until he is being supplied with adequate amounts from outside sources.

During the changeover, which in large part has already been effected, there will be no interruption to the daily routine and the Weekly Quotation Bulletin will continue to reach subscribers as usual.

were those at Heywood, California on April 14th; and Shelbyville, Indiana on April 82th.

While on the subject of airport dedications, it was regretful for us to hear of the resignation of Mr. G. F. Lancaster of Brooklyn, N. Y. from the airport dedication hobby. Mr. Lancaster was one of our fore most authorities on airport dedication covers, and his collection of 1941 covers was almost 100 per cent complete and won numerous awards at various philatelic shows. Temporarily, his place on the Airport Dedication committee of the American Airmail Society Catalog will remain unfilled; while his monthly columns in the Airmail Journal and in the Metropolitan Airmail Cover Club News will be taken over by Mr. W. T. Wynn, Jr., of Detroit, Mich., who is also a very prominent airport dedication authority. Mr. Lancaster will continue to serve as a director of the American Airmail Society and as Secretary of the Metropolitan Airmail Cover Club, also as Editor-In-Chief of the Metropolitan Airmail Cover Club News.

The American Airmail Society will hold its first Post-War Convention at the Book-Cadillac Hotel, Detroit, Mich., on May 31st and June 1st & 2nd. A gala exhibition by the Motor City Airmail Society, a special donation auction, and a banquet will highlight the affair. Anyone interested in aerophilately (either Stamps or Covers) is urged to attend. We are certain you will have an enjoyable time. Orian E. Green is general chairman of the affair.

Monthly meeting of the Metropolitan Airmail Cover Club will be held on Friday evening, May 10th at the Malin Studios, 225 West 46th St., New York City. Visitors are always welcome.

The Civil Aeronautics Board recently made several new route authorizations in Florida and in the Rocky Mountain state. Full details in my next column.

Nashville Society Offers F. D. Tennessee Cover

In order to take part in the forthcoming Tennessee Sesquicentennial celebration and the first day sale of the special three cent Tennessee commemorative stamp the Nashville Philatelic Society is preparing a special cachet envelope for the first day cover collector.

The stamp to be issued in Nashville on June 1st will carry out the design presented to the Post-office Department by the Tennessee Historical Society. It will picture the state capitol building flanked by portraits of John Sevier, Tennessee's first governor, and Andrew Jackson, the first president of the United States from Tennessee. A second design for this stamp was presented by Kenneth Hinson, a member of the Nashville Philatelic Society. This design pictured the state seal with the state capitol below. The Nashville Philatelic Society has now taken this second design and with changes in wording, a change from a one color design to a two color design, has produced a well suited cachet for the event.

The Nashville Philatelic Society in its desire to make the first day of issue of the Tennessee stamp a greater success will offer this two color cachet cover to collectors free of charge; the only cost to the collector being the stamps to be used on the cover.

DEALER COMPLAINS OF PRICE CHANGES

We are in receipt of a letter from a dealer which he has sent to his source of supply complaining about the change in price or rapid drop in price of items of recent issue. This dealer blames the wholesale house for the fact that stamps when first purchased were at a stiff price and later prices have been at a fraction of first cost. The dealer states that he sells to his customers and later the customers point out to him that the stamps have fallen in price to a fraction of what they paid for them. The dealer states that he feels obligated to refund to his customers. This matter was of frequent occurrence following the last war. Prices on some sets dropped from as high as $25 for early deliveries to as low as 25 cents for the final price a year later. H. E. Harris & Co., of Boston, spent their money in warning that such things would happen again and happen they have as is evident to anyone who will check prices on some of the issues of the past several months.

There is nothing that anyone can do about such matters, other than to grin and bear it and we do not feel that any retail dealer is in any way obligated to make any refund to any customer because of price changes on stamps.

It is also a fact that some stamps advance quickly over prices at which they may have first been offered. Do any customers of any dealers come into the dealers office and state that since the so and so set has advanced in price to five dollars and I only paid you three dollars for it, I would like to give you another two dollars as that is what the set is now worth.

No, boys, that just is not done and when prices are published in all stamp journals, no buyer has any just complaint if he buys and prices fall. It is not necessary that they buy when they do, they can wait and let the stamp level off or go up and take their chance. Naturally in these remarks we do not approve of any actual exploitation, some of which does happen, but where such is evident the dealer can best protect himself by changing sources of supply as some wholesalers make an honest effort to try to protect their customers.

PHILATELY NEEDS A PUBLICITY BUREAU

Stamp collecting got a tremendous boost in a full column on the Editorial page of the New York Times of April 18th. Despite the inactivity of any organized body of people interested in the hobby, either collectors or dealers, we do get splendid support on many occasions from the daily papers and this is an outstanding example. What the hobby needs however is a propaganda bureau which will put out real news and real propaganda with the idea of guiding the tyro in the right direction. Must we believe that the big men in the American Stamp Dealers Association are unable to realize this fact or is there some reason why facts and truth about the hobby are not exploited as they should be.

We had some hopes that the recently organized Philatelic Foundation might fill the gap but judging from the inactivity of this group along the necessary lines we can only conclude that the foundation is "weak".

WHO IS TO BLAME FOR CONDITION CRAZE

Joseph G. Dreve of Memphis, Tenn., writes a two page letter in arguing as to whether the collector or the dealer is to blame for the condition craze which makes for high prices when the collector buys and allows the dealer to beat down the price when the collector sells. Mr. Dreve winds up with a final paragraph in his letter and states that he believes the dealer is the most to blame for the condition craze. Since he settles the argument in his own mind, we see no need for printing his letter which argues pro and con on the subject.

For our part we see the collector going into the shop of the dealer and pawing through a stock book full of stamps to pick out the very finest copy he can find and when charged a premium price for this copy he will remark that "so and so" offered the stamp for 75c, you ask me a dollar and a quarter for this.

When demanding the best, one should expect to pay a premium price. I know you would not kick at paying more for a good porterhouse steak than for a simple round steak. It all comes out of the same cow, just as the stamps you are buying come from the same sheet.

We believe the one best way to settle stamp prices would be for no dealer to display any stamp for sale without a price attached. If this is done, the collector would find little room for argument on price, as he could see before him three to four different copies of the same stamp, each priced according to condition and would be at liberty to buy that one which he wanted. We believe if collectors would try to buy in this manner and deliberately refuse to pay the price for the finest and be satisfied with the next best copy offered them that they would help eliminate in many instances, top prices for the very finest condition.

On the other hand, there will always be those who can afford the best and they will pay a premium price to get it. After all, prices you pay and prices at which your collection will sell are based on the kind of copies you have in it and for the man who buys second rate copies as against the man who buys first rate copies, there will always be a difference in value of the collection.

Each collection will command a different figure when sold and we see no reason why each should not be satisfied with what he has bought.

Trouble is that the man who drives a model T Ford expects to be able to buy the same kind of stamps as the man who drives a Packard. Main thing is to buy within your means and feel satisfied with what you are able to afford.

VOX POP

Dear Mr. Linn:-

Just a word to congratulate you on your fine editorial in regard "Condition". It is mighty grand to see a publisher bear down on the "Big Money" collectors who have been making stamp collecting unbearable for the average collector. . .

Nobody likes to see ugly defaced or damaged stamps in a collection. . . But fine appearing stamps with minor faults that can be purchased at a price commensurate with condition deserve a place in the best of collections. . .

Our late President saw in each stamp (using the words of Pat Herst). . . Something in each stamp which is overlooked by the many collectors who insist on the impossible in condition. . .

I personally knew one of the "Big Money" collectors who would deride the collections of all the "Little People". . . Many a time he has embarrassed them with his ridicule of some stamps in their collection which were not "superb". . . Yet this same man accumulated for years thousands of dollars worth of stamps. (Not in his collection, of course) . . . But on the side. . . Thousands of dollars worth of stamps that cataloged $10.00 and up. . . With minor defects but of good appearance. . . Which he could jostle out of the embarrassed souls for a few pennies on the dollar of catalog. . . And they would "Fall" for it. . .

I merely write this to point out one instance where I know that a condition crank turned the tables on those whom he derided, to his own advantage.

JUST IN CASE

you don't know. I need these stamps you are thinking of selling. I am sure we can both profit if you do not put off writing.

WARNING

In all of our years in Philately we have never read anything as important to all of Philately as we believe is contained in the warning which Lawrence W. Case writes about in the April CASE LETTER.

We will base our reputation on the fact that the message contained in this April LETTER is of vital importance to every editor, stamp dealer and stamp collector. We will send a copy to you if you will send a 3c postage stamp and we guarantee you that you will be sufficiently interested in what you will read, for Mr. Case has uncovered a legitimate phase of Stampdom, which if it is allowed to flourish, will bring a black eye to Philately.

Max C. Kaye, well-known dealer in U. S. revs and a long-time advertiser in these columns, is back from overseas service and tells us he can supply the needs of most average collectors from new additions to his stock.

Two new addresses to note: The Kellogg Stamp Co. has moved to 1260 Library in Detroit, and New York's Frontier Stamp Co. which advertised its coming first mail auction featuring U. S. mint sheets exclusively in our last issue, moved to 38 Park Row as of yesterday (May 1.)

Speaking of auctions, that's a nice one Billig & Rich has scheduled for three days beginning May 13. Their last one did exceedingly well, realizing $24,100 on 3000 lots. Samples of individual prices: Lichtenstein 5Fr
Vaduz sheet $75; Br. Guiana #5
$410; Cape of Good Hope #1 mint

$58. Mint 19th U. S. brought up

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT

With great interest centered on the disposal of the stamp collection of our late President, lovers of philately and admirers of America's Number One Stamp Collector have been wondering, "Can I get a stamp from President Roosevelt's collection?" Gimbels is proud to offer selected material from the collection that has had all American talking. There is something listed here within the range of all philatelists, from the young amateur to the seasoned oldster. Individual stamps, covers, pages from his collection, complete sets in singles, blocks, used and unused—you may take your choice. Remember, though, that in most cases these are "one of a kind" items. We suggest you send a supplementary list of your second choice, or choices.

SPECIAL ROOSEVELT ITEMS

So that more collectors may have a part of the stamp collection of the Late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Gimbels Stamp Department has broken up several of his collections and offers them as follows (in some cases we have only one of a kind, in others we have several, so it's first come, first served):

THE ROOSEVELT COLLECTION

When the first half of this renowned collection went on public sale, interest was tremendous, and stamps and covers were eagerly bid for. Everybody wanted at least one item from the collection, but few were able to secure anything. Then, at the second sale, interest was even greater, and prices skyrocketed—no one would bear the disappointment of not having something that once belonged to President Roosevelt.

This is easily understandable. President Roosevelt as a man and as a leader was beloved by millions of Americans; he was the first President of the United States to be elected to office four times, and he had just led this country through a war that embraced Africa and Europe, the Pacific and the Atlantic.

His activities as a stamp collector—even during the troublesome years of war, were widely known. Even at the time of his sudden death at Warm Springs, Ga., he had stamps with him, and discussed his active interest in them. He was the No. 1 stamp collector in this country, and no one, regardless of party affiliations, will deny that his interest in stamp collecting attracted thousands upon thousands of new enthusiasts.

Gimbels Famous Stamp Department, by heavy bidding at both Roosevelt auctions, is now able to offer its many friends some of the material "ex-Roosevelt." Naturally, all items bear the mark of authenticity.

CACHED ENVELOPES

The late President Roosevelt received during his lifetime many cached envelopes marking a multitude of events. All of these he kept, and somehow found time to mount in ring binders. Gimbels Famous Stamp Department was probably the largest of the cover buyers, and is happy to be able to offer them singly on a first come, first served basis only. There are no duplicates and therefore orders for specified events should have alternate selections. Most of these envelopes are addressed to the President and, as those who followed the sales know, they are very desirable.

These covers are priced from $5.00 up, and collectors of first day covers, air covers, ship covers and historical items are urged to write in their wants quickly, or, better still, come in and pick out what you want.

Many of the envelopes are addressed by means of a picture of President Roosevelt and nothing more; some have poetry as the address, others have unusual addresses such as "46 to 2" referring to the Electoral vote, "First Democrat, Regular"; "The Big Wheel Horse"; "F.D.R." "The Youngest Old Man in Washington"; and others. They are included in the group, as noted, priced individually at $5.00 and up.

There is a most unusual set of NRA stamps cancelled from various towns and cities so that the names equal the sentence, "—Franklin Delano Roosevelt Ushers—Recovery True Loving America Promises Devotion." There were twelve covers to the set as planned, but two were not included, or, perhaps, returned. This set, sold as such, is priced at..... 250.00

POSTAGE STAMP PARADE

JOSEPH J. GOLDBERG, Editor
3516 N. Pine Grove Chicago 13, Illinois

ARGENTINA—Commemorative. A 5c. stamp was issued April 12 to commemorate the anniversary of the death of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. 20,000,000 stamps were issued. Value is 5c blue black and pictures a poor picture of Pres. Roosevelt. It is further noted that the current Argentine $20.00 stamp, Scott's type A147, has been issued on the current white paper, thin and without watermark. Recently this stamp appeared on a casein-coated glazed paper. The current 40c. stamp, Scott's A141, has been issued on unwatermarked paper, not engraved.

AUSTRIA—Additional values of the pictorial set have been submitted. The 25gr., gray, pictures a small building, probably a chapel, in the snow-covered mountains; the 38gr., olive, has a beautiful lake scene, and so does the 42gr., red-brown.

Jugoslav Democratic Federation Issue

The above set of eleven stamps from Yugoslavia were described in the Postage Stamp Parade column by Mr. Goldberg in the issue of April 25th. The cuts for the illustrations arrived from the engravers too late to include in that issue.

NEW AIRMAIL ENVELOPE

During the late war collectors were surprised with an issue of the standard 6c airmail envelope without the colored border which is typical of air mail envelopes. This war issue was of the standard small size envelope.

Now comes from Edwin R. Payne of Salem, Oregon, a specimen of this same no border envelope in the large size envelope. This envelope measures 9 1/2 x 4 1/4 inches in size and is what is known as a number 10 size in Commercial envelopes.

Mr. Payne states that these envelopes were made to fill a Military demand from the Pacific area. He reports both Die C and B varieties as having been found and that it is believed that the supply has been very limited.

Mexico Issues UN Postage and Air Stamps

Thanks to C. W. Biehl of Mexico City, we are able to illustrate a first day cover of the new set from Mexico issued in compliance to the United Nations. See the Postage Stamp Parade Column of April 25th issue for list of values and denominations of both the Postage and airmail set.

According to information from Gimbels Stamp Department in New York, we note that the design is a confusing one to Americans since the Spanish for UNO is ONU. The letters "O. N. U." appear in the center of each stamp, with the flags of the participating nations covering the letters on the air mail stamps. The cover we illustrate shows the 30c brown airmail stamp together with the 2c olive, 6c brown and 12c blue of the postage set. We note that Mr. Goldberg in his Postage Stamp Parade column gives April 8 as first day of issue while the circular from Gimbels gives the date as April 10. On the cover which we illustrate the cancellation on the stamps is so illegible that no date is shown but on the back of the cover, the Mexico City registered cancellation is for April 10th.

Boom In Plate Blocks In New York Market

The interest in plate blocks reported from Metropolitan dealers is perhaps the most outstanding trend noticed of late. Prices on the "dead" material of the 1936-1940 period, stamps which have never seemed to share in the demand of the past few years, are at last being sought to such an extent that supplies of them are fast fading.

Such relatively inexpensive items as the 3c Ratification, the Territorial series, the 3c Baseball and the 3c Iowa are low in most dealers' stocks, and should be ripe for substantial advances in forthcoming lists.

FAMOUS AMERICANS IN BLOCKS
 While looking for a paper clip recently we were surprised to find a quantity of very fine to superb sets of used blocks of the Famous Americans, hiding behind a pencil. It was a rather large pencil, sort of King Size.
 While our small stock of three hundred sets remains, we can offer these at $1.50 per set. Doubt if you can find them offered for less elsewhere; you certainly cannot find them offered anywhere else in better shape!

 how many readers of Linn's Weekly Stamp News are collectors of first day covers. We'd like to make up as complete a list of them as possible.
 The object of the Century Cover Club is to further the interests of these collectors, but of course it can't be done without knowing who they are.
